

41 WOMEN ARE READY TO HELP MAKE WORLD BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

Graduates of the Y. W. C. A.
Training School Prepared to Serve in Any Climate.

Forty-one young women were graduated yesterday afternoon from the National Training School of the Young Women's Christian Association at Fifty-second street and Lexington avenue. They are ready to serve in any part of the world. Some of them were distinguished in various fields before they came to the United States for the two years' course at the training school. Baroness Olga Meyendorff was already mistress of six languages when she came here to fit herself for the position of World's Y. W. C. A. Secretary. Her territory will embrace Europe. As a preliminary she will attend the World's Y. W. C. A. Conference in Stockholm, Sweden, in June, with Miss Caroline Dow, dean of the training school, and Miss Gertrude McArthur.

"The work of the training school is marvellous," said the Baroness. "There is no other such institution."

I expect to begin my service in London." Miss Marguerite Kriel, a Boer, who will return to Africa in December to act as a travelling secretary in the Transvaal, Cape Province and Orange Free State, said the English militants have done the suffrage movement incalculable harm in Africa, where the men had shown great interest. Miss Alice Shields of Lahore, India, goes back to carry on work well advanced. Miss Myra Withers of Kansas City goes to India as travelling secretary. Marion Osgood and Margaret Matthew return to Tokio, Japan. Miss Jeanie Heald of Lynchburg, Va., carries her training back to help her in social service among the factory girls of that place. Miss Grace Dodge presided at the simple exercises. The Rev. Harry E. Fosdick spoke on "The Efficacy of Prayer." The alumni dinner followed the commencement.

SUES FOR GIFTS HE MADE.

Plummer Wants Back Ring and Money He Gave Mrs. Staples.

BOSTON, May 28.—Presents of a $500 diamond ring and numerous sums of money figured in the testimony of a suit brought by Samuel Plummer of Portland, Me., against Mrs. Catherine O'Brien of No. 424 Tremont street, this city, which was heard by Judge Duff to-day. The ring and the money were given to Mrs. Maud Staples, Mrs. O'Brien's daughter.

Plummer, in his testimony, declared that his friendship for Mrs. Staples was only platonic. Plummer declared that he made a loan of $500 to Mrs. O'Brien. She contends that the plaintiff made a gift of money to her daughter in order that the latter might purchase a player-piano.

Mrs. Staples has been married twice, and she is a very attractive young woman of about twenty.

She testified that Mr. Plummer had made many gifts of money aggregating hundreds of dollars to her. She did not know that he was married at first, she said.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labeling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which is poisonous and produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genulus Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

A Piano for Every Home

Confidence—the Bulwark of Trade

UNDER the usual order of piano selling, the person with the least to invest is asked to take the greatest risks. As a matter of principle, the O'Neill-Adams Co. does not deviate a particle in the complete protection offered its piano patrons—whether the price be $170 or $850. For instance, any buyer can get all his money back within 30 days if he is not satisfied. We have confidence both in our pianos and in human nature.

The O'Neill-Adams Co. is in closest possible touch with the consumers—the people who buy to use. The very existence of this store depends upon the confidence which people have in us, and the confidence which we have in you.
